"Do Your Own Thing"

Bring your unfinished

"Frankie Welcome"
(design by Gaye Schoell)

Hello everyone!!!

Just got back from the OKC convention. If you ever have the opportunity to attend, it is well worth your time and money. We had a great time, good classes, nice trade floor, and most of all...PAINTERS! More new friends and conversation. The change in venue was good. It is a lot closer (by 30 minutes) to the airport.

Were you all aware of the Decorative Painters Foundation? If not, I think you might enjoy checking it out. They have Quite a few online classes, reasonably priced, and I love the variety. Hope to see you on September 9th!

Helen

VP NOTES:

Hey there!

So I am not mentally up and running at full speed at the moment and so for this upcoming Meeting / Class in September I am not prepared to teach! :(I am very sorry! I will be painting the Frankie Welcome sign in October!

Instead of a class, we will be having a "Do Your Own Thing" time after the meeting. Bring whatever it is you want to paint! Finish up a project, or start a new one! I know quite a few of you are gearing up for Christmas Bazaars and this is extra time to add to your stock! The more the merrier for chatting, laughing and eating! :) The best times are when we are together as a group!

Remember this is our meeting and our Nominations for the upcoming board will be discussed. It takes a village to keep this group running and we appreciate each and every one of you! Monica

SUNSHINE – Well, this year so far has not been uneventful. I have sent out several "get well" cards and hopefully it brought a smile to many faces. Tugboat cares!! Make sure to send me all the information you hear or see if someone needs to be cheered up. It's no fun being sick and thinking no one cares. No, no, this is not the case. We all care!! Thanks so much for letting me know who needs to be cheered up. I could not be doing this without you.
